

Please oppose the move to further deregulate broadcast media. As fewer conglomerates acquire and control more media outlets, the American people lose diversity of information sources and, as a result, our freedom of speech is diminished. Our democracy is being seriously jeopardized by fewer companies owning and controlling more radio, television, newspapers, magazines and commercial Internet sites.